2. Project/Program Information

This section is an overview of your project or program. Provide the title, timeline, and audience your project or program will be serving. The project or program must fall within the grant period of January 1, 2024 – December 31, 2024.

• Title of Project/Program:
• Timeline:
• Estimate the number of individuals or the audience of the community who will benefit from the project/program (i.e. 25 students, 30 elderly, etc.)

3. Narrative

The Narrative Section provides details of the project or program being presented. Be thorough on how the project or program will run, how it will engage with the community or audience the project or program serves, and how the project or program will be determined as successful.

• Summary of Project/Program (500 words maximum):
　　o What is your arts project or program? Be thorough in the description of what the project or program is.
• Engagement (500 words maximum)
　　o In what ways is your project or program engaging participants in the community? Describe the activity(ies) with how members of the community are interacting with your arts project or program.
• Defining/Measuring Success (500 words maximum)
　　o How do you determine that your art project or program is successful? Describe what your goals are for the project or program and how you will measure the success or impact of the project.

4. Budget

What is the budget for the arts-based project or program? This is a requirement for the grant application. Failure to turn in a budget will resort to the application being disregarded before it gets presented to the Review Panel. Download the Budget on the web page and answer the following question below:
　　o How will the funds from TAP be used?
　　o Fill out and turn in the Budget Form

5. Support Materials

        Support materials are not required to turn in with the application, but support materials are strongly encouraged to build up the application. Label support materials with the application and budget. Support materials may include one or multiple from the list below:

- Marketing or Promotion Materials (i.e. logo, marketing image, brochure, etc)
- Completed Drafts or Proposals
- Concept Sketches
- Contracts
- Credentials of any partners affiliated with the project or program (i.e. biographies, resumes, portfolios, etc)
- Sample evaluation or assessment tool of the project or program
- Summary of past evaluations from the project or program
- Educational Materials
- Letter of Support from key partners of applications

6. Submission of Grant Application

        After completing the application, budget, and support materials, the grant must be submitted together as PDF files. The grant application is due Friday, September 22, 2023, at 4:59 PM. Email the completed application to tuscarawasartspartnership@gmail.com.
